INDEX TO VOLUME 99

JANUARY - DECEMBER, 1971

January: pp. 1-64 March: pp. 129-192 Summer: pp. 257-320 November: pp. 389-456
February: pp. 65-128 April: pp. 193-256 October: pp. 321-388 December: pp. 457-524

NAMES OF CONTRIBUTORS ARE PRINTED IN ITALICIZED CAPITALS

ACADEME and its models, 410
ACADEMIA, in defense of, 135
ACADEMIC FREEDOM, newer concepts of, 72; AASCU statement on academic responsibility, 204
ACCOUNTABILITY—next deadly nostrum in education?, 501
ACCREDITATION, university extension and, 87
ADISESHIAH, M. S., brain drain from Arab world, 367
ADMINISTRATION, urban neighborhood influences on high school, 172; new chancellor of CUNY, 398; credibility gap in supervision, 415; team approach to academic, 504; see COPE, R. G.; GOVERNING BOARDS; MARLAND; PRINCIPALS; PRESIDENT(S); and WALTERS
ADOLESCENT, low, use of drugs, 335; attitudes toward drugs, 335; -adult bond, 468
ADULT, adolescent-, bond, 468
ADULT EDUCATION, and economic planning as weapons against unemployment, 232; college credits for life experiences, 271; see CONTINUING EDUCATION; DURNALL, E. J.: and LIFELONG EDUCATION
AFRICA(N), problems of writing, history, 101; see KENYA
AFZAL, M., Teheran University and government of Iran, 369
AID, to parochial schools, 198; to continuing education, 204; see FOREIGN AID and STATE AID
AMERICA(N), statistics of attendance in, universities and colleges, 1970-71, 105; Micronesian culture vs., education, 279; Essentialist challenge to, education, 210; deluge of humanitarianism in, university, 241; youth in, cultural and educational problems (special section), 246-254; see SOUTH and U.S.
AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES statement on academic responsibility, 204
AMISH schools today, 227
ARAB, brain drain from, world, 367
ARABIC as Unesco working language, 144
ATTENDANCE, statistics of, in American universities and colleges, 1970-71, 105; interstate student migration, 268; see ENROLLMENTS
ATTITUDES, college youth, today, 246
AUDIO-VISUAL EDUCATION: Jewish studies course via TV, 402
AWARDS: International Literacy Day, 9; honors for achievement in measurement, 140

BALLER, W., and E. LOWER, informative feedback: educational controversy, 417
BARTL, C. P., and G. L. PELTIER, academic underachiever in industrialized world, 24
BEELER, K. D., and A. W. EBERLE, paradoxes in higher education, 217
BEHAVIOR: comparative sex norms in U.S. and Danish students, 333; see CHEATING and DRUG(S)
BELDING, R. E., Norway's district colleges, 54
BERNARD, T. L., brain drain: mountain or molehill?, 43
BHELY-QUENUM, O., problems of writing African history, 101
BILINGUAL EDUCATION, degrees in, 332
BLACK, occupational education and, students, 76; see DESEGREGATION
BOOK PREVIEWS: "The Degradation of the Academic Dogma: The University in America, 1945-1970," 241; "Man and His Circumstances: Ortega as Educator," 304; "Humanistic Foundations of Education," 487; "Catholic Higher Education in America: A History," 493; "George Peabody: A Biography," 497
BOOK REVIEWS: educational literature review, 294, 472
BRAIN DRAIN, mountain or molehill?, 43; and development, 102; from Arab world, 367
BRAZILIAN government priority projects in education, 364
BRESNICK, D.: see LACHMAN, S. P.
BRICKMAN, W. W., educational developments in 1970, 10; newer concepts of academic freedom, 72; drug addiction and schools, 146; instant and relevant curricula, 207; study of higher education, 266; educational literature review, 294, 472; U.S. Supreme Court as prophet, 330; input-output language in education, 394; status of Society for the Advancement of Education, 1970-71, 451; professionalism in higher education, 466

CALATRELLO, R. L., reflections on sociologist in school of education, 419
CALIFORNIA, UNIVERSITY OF, at Santa Barbara, experiment in multi-media learning at, 200
CAMPUS, "sheepskin psychosis" and, unrest, 6; communication and, crises, 7; dissent vs. disruption, 7; president's view of, unrest, 81; election recess fails trial, 399; student response to faculty power, 424; analysis of 1970-71, peace, 462; see RECRUITMENT
CARPENTER, R., vector theory of curriculum development, 30
CASH, W. B.: see WHEATLEY, B. C.
CATHOLIC, historical perspectives and contemporary realities of, education, 149; changing student in, college, 493
CHAMBERS, M. M., trend toward separate governing boards, 349
CHAMBLISS, J. J.: see WHEELER, J.
CHANGE, schools and social, 487
CHEATING in high school, 96
CHINA, COMMUNIST, reforms for rural primary and middle schools, 237
CLEARY, R. E., are civic education courses worth keeping?, 35

COHEN, S., creativity: implicit goal in education, 174
COLLECTIVE BARGAINING, faculty, at City University of New York, 346
COLLEGE(S), Norway's district, 54; statistics of attendance in American universities and, 1970-71, 105; supplementary report on, enrollments for 1970-71, 137; NSA grants for science programs at, and universities, 206; on death of, 223; youth attitudes today, 246; faculty-student views on, 262; credits for life experiences, 271; guaranteed loans for, students, 275; views on state aid to private, 325; of second chance, 443; student participation in, teaching, 463; changing student in Catholic, 493; see CAMPUS; COMMUNITY COLLEGE(S); JUNIOR COLLEGE(S); and STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES
COLLINS, P. M., sex education in secondary education: problems and pseudo-problems, 357
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, new directions for, Urban Center, 202; Nevins papers and library at, 462
COMMISSIONER OF EDUCATION, new U.S., 205
COMMUNITY COLLEGE(S), -junior college in historical and cultural perspective, 45; areas of concern for comprehensive, 47
COMMUNITY RELATIONS for special programs in higher education, 170
COMPARATIVE EDUCATION, William Torrey Harris: pioneer in, 230
COMPUTER, IBM, for Navajo language textbooks, 468
CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS: on reform of preschool education in West Germany, 288; Fifth British Commonwealth Education, 289; European seminar on research in education, 290; Unesco, on Deprivation and Disadvantage in Education, 359; Unesco, on in-service teacher training, 386; First National Congress of Education and Culture, Havana, Cuba, 452
CONFERENCE ON HUMAN ENVIRONMENT, official emblem for, 332
CONTINUING EDUCATION, aiding, 204; see ADULT EDUCATION; DURNALL, E. J.; and LIFELONG EDUCATION
CONTROL, proposal for professional, of educator performance, 39
COPE, R. G., conflict between politics and evaluation in higher education, 218
CORDASCO, F., historical perspectives and contemporary realities of Catholic education, 149
CORDIER, A. W., higher education in turbulent society, 88
CORRESPONDENCE COURSES for in-service training of primary teachers in developing countries, 386
COUNSELING, educational, 469
COURSE(S), curse of, 32; differences in, grades and student ratings of teacher performance, 60; improving, in methods of teaching, 413; see CURRICULUM
CREATIVITY, implicit goal in education, 174; among West European pupils, 377
CRICHTON, I., college of second chance, 443
CUBA, school dropout problem in, 234; school dropout question in, 382; revolutionizing educational policy in, 452
CULTURE, counter-, at Kickapoo Creek, 247; world boom in TV and publishing, 265; Micronesian, vs. American education, 279
CURRICULUM, toward relevancy, and social order, 29; vector theory of, development, 30; emotional emphasis in education, 78; experimental undergraduate, 206; instant and relevant, 207; sex education in secondary, problems and pseudo-problems, 357; increase in vocational-technical education programs, 467; see COURSE(S); ENGLISH; HISTORY; HUMANITIES; MUSIC; SOCIAL SCIENCE(S); and SOCIAL STUDIES

DANISH, comparative sex norms in U.S. and, students, 333
DEGREE(S), "sheepskin psychosis" and campus unrest, 6; new professional studies, 330; in bilingual education, 332; data on, 397; rationale for independent study, programs, 411; see DOCTORATE and PH.D.
DEMOCRACY, student faith in, 6
DENTAL, medical and, education for health care crisis, 71
DESEGREGATION, feasibility of public school, 433; see ORNSTEIN, A. C.
DEVELOPING NATIONS, deprivation and disadvantage in, 359; correspondence courses for in-service training of primary teachers in, 386; new educational methods and, 399
DIENER, T. J., team approach to academic administration, 504
DISADVANTAGED: see BLACK; DEVELOPING NATIONS; MINORITIES; and TANNER, D.
DISSENT, vs. disruption, 7; see UNREST
DOCTORATE, changing expectations in, 93; see DEGREE(S) and PH.D.
DOCUMENTS: reforms for rural primary and middle schools, 237; recommendations for national action affecting higher education, 379; school dropout question in Cuba, 382
DRISCOLL, W. J., rationale for independent study degree programs, 411
DROPOUT(S), prescription for junior college, 49; school, problem in Cuba, 234; school, question in Cuba, 382
DROST, W. H., ES'70s—educational innovation of 1970's?, 224
DRUG(S), addiction and schools, 146; high school students, and teachers, 250; low adolescent use of, 335; adolescent attitudes toward, 335
DuBOIS, E. E.: see FRANKIE, R. J.
DURNALL, E. J., university extension and accreditation, 87

EARLY EDUCATION, social science in, 465
EBERLE, A. W.: see BEELER, K. D.
ECOLOGY, pressing vs. pressed interests, and education, 426; see ENVIRONMENT
ECONOMIC PLANNING, adult education and, as weapons against unemployment, 232
EDUCATION, parent, and cultural inheritance, 21; reflections of sociologist in school of, 41; medical and dental, for health care crisis, 71; occupational, and black students, 76; emotional emphasis in, 78; 1971 as centennial year in history of, 94; historical perspectives and contemporary realities of Catholic, 149; religion and, cooperation or conflict?, 152; as source of power, 166; creativity: implicit goal in, 174; contemporary crisis of humanistic studies, or propaganda?, 178; aiding continuing, 204; new U.S. Commissioner of, 205; Esso, Foundation grants, 206; Essentialist challenge to American, 210; Nadezhda K. Krupskaya, founder of Soviet public, 235; Micronesian culture vs. American, 279; reform of preschool, in West Germany, 288; Fifth British Commonwealth, Conference, 289; European seminar on research in, 290; for government careers, 328; degrees in bilingual, 332; change in, new and not so new, 341; revolution, and nationalism in Peru, 361; Brazilian government priority projects in, 364; input-output language in, 394; comparative expenditures on, 396; aims and requirements of modern, 409; reflections on sociologist in school of, 419; pressing vs. pressed interests: ecology and, 426; population, and quality of life in Latin America, 439; social science in early, 465; increase in vocational-technical, programs, 467; accountability—next deadly nostrum in, 501
EDUCATIONAL, developments in 1970, 12; students and, priorities, 75; study of, development strategies, 144; ombudsman for New York City?, 168; objectives and new social studies, 180; ES'70s, innovation of 1970's, 224; international commission for, development, 275; literature review, 294, 472; new, methods, and developing nations,

XUM

399; new Hebrew-English, journal, 402; informative feedback, controversy, 417; revolutionizing, policy in Cuba, 452; enrollments, 469; counseling, 469; cultural evaluation of contemporary, innovations, 507

EDUCATIONAL HISTORY: 1971 as centennial year in history of education, 94; see ESSENTIALIST; GONCHAROV, L.; and SAKAS, J.

EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY: see ESSENTIALIST

EDUCATIONAL THEORY, meaning and pertinence of, 214

EDUCATOR, proposal for professional control of, performance, 39

ELLIS, R. A., feasibility of public school desegregation, 433

ENGLISH, direction in teaching, 136; new Hebrew-, educational journal, 402; see FRANKS, J. G.

ENROLLMENTS, facts on school, and finance, 74, supplementary report on collegiate, for 1970-71, 137; educational, 469; see ATTENDANCE

ENVIRONMENT, official emblem for Conference on Human, 332; see ECOLOGY

ES'70s—educational innovation of 1970's?, 224

ESSENTIALIST challenge to American education, 210

ESSO EDUCATION FOUNDATION grants, 206

ETHNIC STUDIES, fellowships for, 208

EUROPE(AN), seminar on research in education, 290; creativity among West, pupils, 377; see DANISH; GERMANY; GREAT BRITAIN; NORWAY; U.S.S.R.; and YUGOSLAVIA

EVALUATION, conflict between politics and, in higher education, 218; of graduate school programs, 264; student, of university professors, 353; informative feedback: educational controversy, 417; cultural, of contemporary educational innovations, 507; see WALDEN, J. C., and WEIGEL, R. G.

EXCHANGE, study of international, 146; Unesco fellowships for study abroad, 442

EXTENSION, university, and accreditation, 87

FACULTY, -student views on colleges, 262; collective bargaining at City University of New York, 346; student response to, power, 424; see CALATRELLO, R. L.; FRIEDMAN, N. L.; PROFESSOR(S); TEACHER(S); and WALDEN, J. C.

FELLOWSHIPS, for ethnic studies, 208; Unesco, for study abroad, 442; see SCHOLARSHIPS

FINANCE, fund shortages restrict programs at state colleges and universities, 70; facts on school enrollments and, 74; recommendations for national action affecting higher education, 379; comparative expenditures on education, 396; see AID; GRANT(S); LOANS; MAGUIRE, J. W.; SCHOLARSHIPS; and TUITION

FOREIGN AID: new educational methods and developing nations, 399

FRANKIE, R. J., and E. E. DuBOIS, community-junior colleges in historical and cultural perspective, 45

FRANKS, J. G., linguistic gospel: dissent, 98

FRASER, S. E., reforms for rural primary and middle schools, 237; Brazilian government priority projects in education, 364

FRESHMEN, Nobel Prize winner teaches, 395

FRIEDMAN, W. L., reflections of sociologist in school of education, 41

GAZA, textbooks for, schoolchildren, 268

GEIGER, L. G., student response to faculty power, 424

GERLACH, R. A., educational objectives and new social studies, 180.

GERMANY, history as taught through East, textbooks, 56; reform of preschool education in West, 288

GOLDBERG, M. H., humanities teaching and mankind emphasis, 176

GONCHAROV, L., and L. KUNETSKAYA, Nadezhda K. Krupskaya, founder of Soviet public education, 235

GOVERNING BOARDS, trend toward separate, 349

GOVERNMENT, new U.S. Commissioner of Education, 205; education for, careers, 328; Brazilian, priority projects in education, 364; Teheran University and, of Iran, 369

GRADES, difference in course, and student ratings of teacher performance, 60; why, are argued, 350

GRADUATE EDUCATION: research library in humanities and social sciences, 12; evaluation of, programs, 264; integrity group seminars, 333; see KLINE, L. W., and PH.D.

GRANT(S), U.S., to "Sesame Street," 140; experimental undergraduate curriculum, 206; NSF, for science programs at colleges and universities, 206; Esso Education Foundation, 206; fellowships for ethnic studies, 208; see SCHOLARSHIPS

GREAT BRITAIN: universal primary education after century, 77; Fifth British Commonwealth Education Conference, 289; college of second chance, 443

GROSS, B., and R. GROSS, radical school reform, 28

HANDICAPPED: unteachable to Ph.D., 272

HARCLEROAD, F. H., H. B. SAGEN, and C. T. MOLEN, JR., developing state colleges and universities: current status and future roles, 157

HARRIS, J. B., meaning and pertinence of educational theory, 214

HARRIS, WILLIAM TORREY, pioneer in comparative education, 230

HAYES, M. L., principals' profile of big-city high schools, 253

HEALTH, medical and dental education for, crisis, 71; deprivation and disadvantage in developing countries, 359

HEATH, G. L., counterculture at Kickapoo Creek, 247

HEBREW, new, -English educational journal, 402

HENSON, K. T., improving courses in methods of teaching, 413

HIGHER EDUCATION, public, in Massachusetts, 51; reform in Yugoslavia, 77; in turbulent society, 88; community relations for special programs in, 170; paradoxes in, 217; conflict between politics and evaluation in, 218; study of, 266; less time and more options in, 285; call for, reform, 327; recommendations for national action affecting, 379; changes in traditional concepts of, 405; see SCHICK, E. B.

HIGH SCHOOL(S), what do, students think?, 74; student weltanschauung, 75; cheating in, 96; urban neighborhood influences on, administration, 172; students, drugs, and teachers, 250; principals' profile of big-city, 253

HISTORY, new multi-racial, syllabus, 18; as taught through East German textbooks, 56; 1971 as centennial year in, of education, 94; problems of writing African, 101

HOLLAND, K., education, population, and quality of life in Latin America, 439

HUEBENER, T., history as taught through East German textbooks, 56

HUMANITARIANISM, deluge of, in American university, 241

HUMANITIES, graduate research library in, and social sciences, 12; teaching and mankind emphasis, 176; contemporary crisis of, studies: education or propaganda?, 178

HURLBURT, A. S.: see OSBORNE, G. S.

INDEPENDENT STUDY, rationale for, degree programs, 411

INITIAL TEACHING ALPHABET vs. traditional orthography, 270

INNOVATION(S), library-university, 163; experiment in multi-media learning at Santa Barbara, 200; Universities Without Walls, 201; ES'70s—education, of 1970's?, 224; internationalized University Without Walls, 397; improving courses in methods of teaching, 413; cultural evaluation of contemporary educational, 507

INTEGRATION, myths of liberalism and school, 436; see ELLIS, R. A.
INTELLIGENCE, developing moral, 136
INTERNATIONAL BOOK YEAR—1972, 79
INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MACHINES CORP. computer for Navajo language textbooks, 468
INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION: science summer school, 78; study of educational development strategies, 144; study of international exchanges, 146; international strategy for Second Development Decade, 198; international commission for educational development, 275; perspectives on (special section), 361-378; internationalized University Without Walls, 397; see AFRICA(N); EUROPE(AN); LATIN AMERICA; MIDDLE EAST; UNESCO; and WORLD
INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY awards, 9
IRAN, Teheran University and government of, 369
ISRAEL: international science summer school, 78; new Hebrew-English educational journal, 402

JACOBSON, S., faculty collective bargaining at City University of New York, 346
JEWISH, research resources in, studies, 17; studies course via TV, 402
JUNIOR COLLEGE(S), community-, in historical and cultural perspective, 45; prescription for, dropouts, 49

KENYA, language and schools in, 373
KERLINGER, F. N., student evaluation of university professors, 353
KICKAPOO CREEK, counterculture at, 247
KIZER, G. A., religion and education: cooperation or conflict?, 152
KLINE, L. W., changing expectations in doctorate, 93
KNOWLES, A. S., president's view of campus unrest, 81; changes in traditional concepts of higher education, 405
KREYCHE, G. F., on death of college, 223; academe and its models, 410
KRISTENSEN, T., adult education and economic planning as weapons against unemployment, 232
KRUPSKAYA, NADEZHDA K., founder of Soviet public education, 235
KRUSZYNSKI, E., urban teachers for urban youth, 511
KUNETSKAYA, L.: see GONCHAROV, L.

LACHMAN, S. P., and D. BRESNICK, educational ombudsman for New York City?, 168
LANDRITH, H. F., prescription for junior college dropouts, 49
LANGUAGE(S), Arabic as Unesco working, 144; and schools in Kenya, 373; input-output, in education, 394; IBM computer for Navajo, textbooks, 468; see ENGLISH and FRANKS, J. G.
LANGUAGE INSTRUCTION: direction in teaching English, 136; see BILINGUAL EDUCATION
LATIN AMERICA, education, population, and quality of life in, 439; see BRAZILIAN; CUBA; and PERU
LEARNING, experiment in multi-media, at Santa Barbara, 200; simple tools and complex, 513
LEDERLE, J. W., public higher education in Massachusetts, 51
LIBERAL EDUCATION: see HUMANITIES
LIBERALISM, myths of, and school integration, 436
LIBRARY, graduate research, in humanities and social sciences, 12; research resources in Jewish studies, 17; university-, 163; Nevins papers and, at Columbia, 462
LIFELONG EDUCATION: needed fundamental changes in school systems, 18
LITERACY, toward world, 282; world drive at crucial point, 461; see INTERNATIONAL LITERACY DAY and READING
LOANS, guaranteed, for college students, 275; see TUITION
LOUISIANA, student NEA suspends white, student group, 142
LOWER, E.: see BALLER, W.

MAGUIRE, J. W., political techniques in school bond and millage elections, 514
MARLAND, SIDNEY P., JR., new U.S. Commissioner of Education, 205
MARSHALL, M. S., curse of courses, 32; involved in relevant, 89; why grades are argued, 350
MASSACHUSETTS, public higher education in, 51
McCALL, T. D., S. J., urban neighborhood influences on high school administration, 172
McCLINTOCK, R., Ortega y Gasset: partly faithful professor, 304
McGILL, W. J., what lies ahead for our universities?, 337
MEASUREMENT, honors for achievement in, 140
MEDIA, MULTI-, experiment in, learning at Santa Barbara, 200
MEDICAL and dental education for health care crisis, 71
MICHIE, A. A., brain drain and development, 102
MICRONESIAN culture vs. American education, 279
MIDDLE EAST: textbooks for Gaza schoolchildren, 268; brain drain from Arab world, 367; see ARABIC; IRAN; and ISRAEL
MILLER, S. I., cultural evaluation of contemporary educational innovations, 507
MINORITIES, scholarships for, students, 146; see AMISH; BLACK; and ETHNIC STUDIES
MITCHELL, B. C.: see ROBERTSON, G. J.
MOELLENBERG, W. P., distinguishing fact from fiction in social crises, 420
MOLEN, C. T., JR.: see HARCLEROAD, F. H.
MONTOR, K., cheating in high school, 96
MUSIC for all ages, 138

NASH, R. J., accountability—next deadly nostrum in education?, 501
NATIONAL EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, student, suspends white Louisiana student group, 142
NATIONALISM, education, revolution, and, in Peru, 361
NATIONAL SCIENCE FOUNDATION grants for science programs at colleges and universities, 206
NAVAJO, IBM computer for, language textbooks, 468
NEGRO(ES): see BLACK and DESEGREGATION
NELSON, L., school dropout problem in Cuba, 234
NEUMANN, H., contemporary crisis of humanistic studies: education or propaganda?, 178
NEVINS [Allan] papers and library at Columbia, 462
NEW YORK CITY, educational ombudsman for, 168
NEW YORK, CITY UNIVERSITY OF, faculty collective bargaining at, 346; new chancellor of, 398
NISBET, R., deluge of humanitarianism in American university, 241
NOBEL PRIZE winner teaches freshmen, 395
NORWAY's district colleges, 54
NUTRITION: ignorance and apathy vs. food abundance, 9

OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION, and black students, 76; education for government careers, 328; position paper on, 329; see VOCATIONAL EDUCATION
OETTING, E. R.: see WEIGEL, R. G.
OGLETREE, E. J., and J. A. RACKAUSKAS, creativity among West European pupils, 377
OHIO PLAN succumbs to lack of popular and institutional support, 399
OMBUDSMAN, educational, for New York City?, 168

XUM

ORNSTEIN, A. C., myths of liberalism and school integration, 436
ORTEGA Y GASSET: partly faithful professor, 304
ORTHOGRAPHY, I.T.A. vs. traditional, 270
OSBORNE, G. S., and A. S. HURLBURT, credibility gap in supervision, 415

PARENT education and cultural inheritance, 21
PARKER, F., 1971 as centennial year in history of education, 94; creation of Peabody Education Fund, 497
PARKER, G. G., statistics of attendance in American universities and colleges, 1970-71, 105; supplementary report on collegiate enrollments for 1970-71, 137
PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS, aid to, 198
PAULSTON, R. G., education, revolution, and nationalism in Peru, 361; revolutionizing educational policy in Cuba, 452
PEABODY EDUCATION FUND, creation of, 497
PELTIER, G. L.: see BARTL, C. P.
PERU, education, revolution, and nationalism in, 361
PH.D., pruning, 8; unteachable to, 272
POLITICS, conflict between, and evaluation in higher education, 218; and learned societies, 345; election recess fails trial, 399; see MAGUIRE, J. W.
POPULATION, education, and quality of life in Latin America, 439
POWER, E. J., changing student in Catholic college, 493
PRATTE, R., new sensorium: new student, 160
PRESCHOOL EDUCATION, U.S. grant to "Sesame Street," 140; reform of, in West Germany, 288
PRESIDENT(S), view of campus unrest, 81; changed role of modern university, 276; see WALTERS
PRIMARY EDUCATION, universal, after century, 77; see CORRESPONDENCE COURSES and FRASER, S. E.
PRINCIPALS' profile of big-city high schools, 253
PRIORITIES, students and educational, 75
PRIVACY: guidelines on pupil records, 283
PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION: medical and dental education for health care crisis, 71
PROFESSIONAL STUDIES, new, degrees, 330
PROFESSOR(S), Ortega y Gasset: partly faithful, 304; student evaluation of university, 353; see CALATRELLO, R. L.; EDUCATOR; FACULTY; FRIEDMAN, N. L.; and TEACHER(S)
PUBLIC, higher education in Massachusetts, 51; Nadezhda K. Krupskaya, founder of Soviet, education, 235
PUBLISHING, world boom in TV and, 265; see HEBREW
PUBLIC SCHOOL, feasibility of, desegregation, 433; see ROBERTSON, G. J.
PUNKE, H., simple tools and complex learning, 513
PUPIL(S), guidelines on, records, 283; creativity among West European, 377; see DROPOUT(S) and STUDENT(S)

RACE: new multi-racial history syllabus, 18; student NEA suspends white Louisiana student group, 142; see BLACK; DESEGREGATION; and INTEGRATION
RACKAUSKAS, J. A.: see OGLETREE, E. J.
READING: I.T.A. vs. traditional orthography, 270; see LITERACY
RECORDS, guidelines on pupil, 283
RECRUITMENT: forum or bazaar?, 86
REFORM(S), radical school, 28; higher education, in Yugoslavia, 77; for rural primary and middle schools, 237; of preschool education in West Germany, 288; need for internal, 325; call for higher education, 327; traditions in urban school, 428
REIMER, M. K., areas of concern for comprehensive community colleges, 47; critique of sensitivity training, 356
RELEVANCY, toward, curriculum, and social order, 29; involved in relevant, 89
RELIGION, and education: cooperation or conflict?, 152; see AMISH; CATHOLIC; JEWISH; and PAROCHIAL SCHOOLS
RESEARCH, graduate, library in humanities and social sciences, 12; resources in Jewish studies, 17; European seminar on, in education, 290; Nevins papers and library at Columbia, 462
RESPONSIBILITY, AASCU statement on academic, 204
REVOLUTION, education, and nationalism in Peru, 361
REYNOLDS, R. N., toward relevancy, curriculum, and social order, 29
ROBERTSON, G. J., and B. C. MITCHELL, school grade-age relationship, 1918-69, 447
ROJAS, B., textbook of future, 315
RUSSIA: see SOVIET and U.S.S.R.

SAGEN, H. B.: see HARCLEROAD, F. H.
SAKAS, J., William Torrey Harris: pioneer in comparative education, 230
SCHICK, E. B., university as paradox, 84
SCHOLARSHIPS, for minority students, 146; see FELLOWSHIPS
SCHOOL(S), needed fundamental changes in, systems, 18; radical, reform, 28; facts on, enrollments and finance, 74; international science summer, 78; drug addiction and, 146; aid to parochial, 198; Amish, today, 227; dropout problem in Cuba, 234; reform for rural primary and middle, 237; evaluation of graduate, programs, 264; language and, in Kenya, 373; dropout question in Cuba, 382; traditions in urban, reform, 428; feasibility of public, desegregation, 433; myths of liberalism and, integration, 436; grade-age relationship, 1918-69, 447; and social change, 487; political techniques in, bond and millage elections, 514
SCIENCE, international, summer school, 78; and human values, 90; NSF grants for, programs at colleges and universities, 206
SCRUPSKI, A.: see WHEELER, J.
SECKINGER, D. S., politics and learned societies, 345
SECONDARY EDUCATION: see COLLINS, P. M.; ES'70s; FRASER, S. E.; and HIGH SCHOOL(S)
SEMINARS, integrity group, 333
SENSITIVITY TRAINING, critique of, 356
"SESAME STREET," U.S. grant to, 140
SEX, comparative, norms in U.S. and Danish students, 333; education in secondary curriculum: problems and pseudo-problems, 357
SHAMAN, J. M., education as source of power, 166
SHAW, F. A., Essentialist challenge to American education, 210
SHIMAHARA, N.: see WHEELER, J.
SHORES, L., library-university, 163
SMITH, D. F., Micronesian culture vs. American education, 279
SMITH, G. A.: see ZIMA, J. P.
SOCIAL SCIENCE(S), graduate research library in humanities and, 12; in early education, 465; see CLEARY, R. E., and HISTORY
SOCIAL STUDIES, educational objectives and new, 180; change and resistance to new, 182
SOCIETY, higher education in turbulent, 88; distinguishing fact from fiction in social crises, 420; see REYNOLDS, R. N., and WHEATLEY, B. C.
SOCIETY FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF EDUCATION, status of, 1970-71, 451
SOCIOLOGY: see CALATRELLO, R. L., and FRIEDMAN, N. L.
SOUTH, boost for out-of-state students in, 464
SOVIET, Nadezhda K. Krupskaya, founder of, public education, 235; see U.S.S.R.
SPECTOR, R. M., changed role of modern university president, 276

SPRING, J. H., traditions in urban school reform, 428
STATE AID, views on, to private colleges, 325
STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES, fund shortages restrict programs at, 70; developing, current status and future roles, 157; see AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES and LEDERLE, J. W.
STATISTICS, of attendance in American universities and colleges, 1970-71, 105; see ENROLLMENTS
STUDENT(S), faith in democracy, 6; differences in course grades and, ratings of teacher performance, 60; what do high school, think?, 74; high school, weltanschauung, 75; and educational priorities, 75; occupational education and black, 76; developing moral intelligence, 136; student NEA suspends white Louisiana, group, 142; scholarships for minority, 146; new sensorium: new, 160; high school, drugs, and teachers, 250; faculty-, views on colleges, 262; textbooks for Gaza schoolchildren, 268; interstate, migration, 268; guaranteed loans for college, 275; comparative sex norms in U.S. and Danish, 333; evaluation of university professors, 353; response to faculty power, 424; leaders on selected current social issues, 445; participation in college teaching, 463; boost for out-of-state, in South, 464; changing, in Catholic college, 493, see DROPOUT(S); FRESHMEN; PUPIL(S); RECRUITMENT; and UNDERGRADUATE
SUCHODOLSKI, B., aims and requirements of modern education, 409
SUMMER SCHOOL, international science, 78
SUPREME COURT, U.S., as prophet, 330

TANNER, D., and L. N. TANNER, parent education and cultural inheritance, 21
TASTO, D. L.: see WEIGEL, R. G.
TEACHER(S), differences in course grades and student ratings of, performance, 60; high school students, drugs, and, 250; correspondence courses for in-service training of primary, in developing countries, 386; surplus: fact or fancy?, 393; Nobel Prize winner teaches freshmen, 395; urban, for urban youth, 511; see CALATRELLO, R. L.; EDUCATOR; FACULTY; FRIEDMAN, N. L., and; PROFESSOR(S)
TEACHER EDUCATION, experiment in, 220; see CORRESPONDENCE COURSES
TEACHING, uninterrupted, 135; direction in, English, 136; humanities, and mankind emphasis, 176; improving courses in methods of, 413; student participation in college, 463; see BILINGUAL EDUCATION and FRANKS, J. G.
TECHNICAL EDUCATION, increase in vocational-, programs, 467
TEHERAN UNIVERSITY and government of Iran, 369
TELEVISION, world boom in, and publishing, 265; Jewish studies course via, 402; see "SESAME STREET"
TEXTBOOKS, history as seen through East German, 56; for Gaza schoolchildren, 268; of future, 315; IBM computer for Navajo language, 468
THANT, U, toward world literacy, 282
TUITION, Yale's, postponement plan, 273; boost for out-of-state students in South, 464; see LOANS

UNDERGRADUATE, experimental, curriculum, 206
UNEMPLOYMENT, adult education and economic planning as weapons against, 232
UNESCO, Arabic as, working language, 144; activities in 1970, 287; fellowships for study abroad, 442; see CONFERENCES AND MEETINGS
UNITED NATIONS: international strategy for Second Development Decade, 198; official emblem for Conference on Human Environment, 332; see THANT, U, and UNESCO
UNIVERSITIES, statistics of attendance in American, and colleges, 1970-71, 105; Without Walls, 201; NSF grants for science programs at colleges and, 206; what lies ahead for our, 337; see CALIFORNIA; CAMPUS; COLUMBIA; NEW YORK, CITY UNIVERSITY OF; STATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES; TEHERAN; and YALE
UNIVERSITY, as paradox, 84; extension and accreditation, 87; library-, 163; deluge of humanitarianism in American, 241; changed role of modern, president, 276; student evaluation of, professors, 353; internationalized, Without Walls, 397
UNREST, "sheepskin psychosis" and campus, 6; communication and campus crises, 7; president's view of campus, 81; analysis of 1970-71 campus peace, 462; see DISSENT and MOELLENBERG, W. P.
URBAN EDUCATION: educational ombudsman for New York City?, 168; community relations for special programs in higher education, 170; urban neighborhood influences on high school administration, 172; new directions for Columbia's Urban Center, 202; principals' profile of big-city high schools, 253; traditions in urban school reform, 428; see KRUSZYNSKI, E.
URCH, G. E., language and schools in Kenya, 373
U.S., grant to "Sesame Street," 140; -U.S.S.R. cooperation, 198; new, Commissioner of Education, 205; interstate student migration, 268; need for internal reform, 325; Supreme Court as prophet, 330; comparative sex norms in, and Danish students, 333; comparative expenditures on education, 396; see AMERICA(N) and SOUTH
U.S.S.R., U.S.-, cooperation, 198; see SOVIET

VALUES, science and human, 90
VAUGHAN, M. S., change in education: new and not so new, 341
VETERANS: aiding continuing education, 204; educational enrollments, 469; educational counselling, 469
VOCATIONAL EDUCATION, increase in technical-, programs, 467; see OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION

WAGNER, F. E., recruitment: forum or bazaar?, 86
WALDEN, J. C., proposal for professional control of educator performance, 39
WALTERS, RAYMOND, 1885-1970, 20
WEIGEL, R. G., E. R. OETTING, and D. L. TASTO, differences in course grades and student ratings of teacher performance, 60
WEIL, R. A., college youth attitudes today, 246
WEINBERG, C., schools and social change, 487
WHEATLEY, B. C., and W. B. CASH, student leaders on selected current social issues, 445
WHEELER, J., J. J. CHAMBLISS, A. SCRUPSKI, and N. SHIMAHARA, experiment in teacher education, 220
WHEELER, J., and N. SHIMAHARA, pressing vs. pressed interests: ecology and education, 426
WILKINSON, R. D., community relations for special programs in higher education, 170
WINN, I. J., change and resistance to new social studies, 182
WISE, J. E., science and human values, 90
WITTMER, J., Amish schools today, 227
WORLD, boom in TV and publishing, 265; toward, literacy, 282; drive at crucial point, 461; see INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION

YALE's tuition postponement plan, 273
YOUTH, what do high school students think?, 74; high school student weltanschauung, 75; students and educational priorities, 75; in America: cultural and educational problems (special section), 246-254; urban teachers for urban, 511; see ADOLESCENT and WHEATLEY, B. C.
YUGOSLAVIA: higher education reform, 77

ZIMA, J. P., and G. A. SMITH, high school students, drugs, and teachers, 250

XUM